Call to Order – San Diego Chapter

Chairman, David Gans called to order the San Diego Chapter on December 4, 2007 at 11:30am. There were 15 people in attendance.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Bob Payne.

Secretary, Tracey Gans, read the Minutes from the previous meeting. The attendees approved the minutes.

Treasurer, John Freaner, read the treasurer’s report. The treasurer’s report was approved.

Self-introductions were conducted.

Announcements-
Bob Bailey of the UPPA Long Beach Chapter encouraged people to attend their Saturday morning breakfast meeting.
Marc Myers of SDSU informed the Chapter about the new class schedules for the Inspection Technology programs being offered by the University.

Old Business-
The Chapter continues to search for a larger meeting place, preferably with a buffet lunch and private meeting room to have our meetings.

New Business –
In January, the Chapter will be hosting a three-day training event focusing on the new 2007 California Plumbing and Mechanical codes as well as a mini expo for manufacturers to tout their wares and provide training on code approved materials.

Presentation –
Ed Wass of Spears Manufacturing stepped up to the plate filled in for the scheduled presenter. Ed shared his knowledge about the newly approved CPVC pipe material and specifically spoke about the inter-compatibility of CPVC pipe and fittings from different manufacturers.

Bob Payne gave the members of the Chapter an update on the progress of PEX pipe and fittings in regards to becoming a California Plumbing code approved material.

Raffle –
Thank you to IAPMO, Ed Wass and SDSU for the generous door prizes.

Adjournment –
Thank you to all the people in San Diego, Los Angeles and IAPMO who are supporting and participating in our new Chapter.

The meeting adjourned at 1:30p.m.
