Call to Order: President Bill Fleischman called to order the March 2, 2010 meeting of the Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO at 5:38 pm at the Lancaster County Extension Education Center in Lincoln, Nebraska. There were 67 members present. A motion was made, seconded and approved by the membership to approve the minutes of the December 1, 2009 meeting.

Treasurer Pat Westlund presented the Membership and Treasurer’s Reports. As of March 2, 2010, there were 100 paid members; checking account balance was in excess of $4,500.

New Business: The PHCC trade show will be held Thursday, April 18 at the Lancaster Event Center from 12:00 noon to 5:00 pm. Two hours of continuing education will be given for master plumbers who attend. Shirts and jackets will be available for those interested with the Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO logo.

Bob Siemsen, President of National IAPMO, said that the new IAPMO building will be completed the first week in May at the national headquarters. World Plumbing Day is Thursday, March 11, and the Technical Code hearings are coming up in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. “Green” code supplements are out and available.

Bill Schweitzer, regional representative for IAPMO, talked about the 2012 national conference that will be held in nearby Kansas City, Missouri. He also stated that the Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO has the best attendance of any IAPMO chapter in the nation!

Next chapter meeting is set for June 1, 2010. The meeting officially adjourned at 6:02 pm. Following the business meeting, Bob Jedlicka of Mack McLain and Associates gave a presentation worth one hour of continuing education to the master plumbers. Pizzas and refreshments were provided by the Chapter. Special thanks to Rex Crawford for setting up the meeting and registering attendees.

Respectfully submitted,
Pat Westlund, Secretary
