The Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO held its final meeting of the year on November 5, 2013 at the Lancaster County Extension Education Center.

Call to Order: The meeting was called to order by Chairman Pat Westlund.

Minutes: The minutes of the August 6, 2013 meeting were approved by the membership.

Secretary’s report: Secretary Rex Crawford gave the membership report. Prior to registrations accepted at this meeting, there were 105 paid members with three additional memberships paid at the door for a total of 108. For 2014, 11 memberships were paid at the meeting.

Treasurer’s report: Treasurer Bill Fleischman presented the treasurer’s report which indicated a cash balance in excess of $5,400 for the Chapter.

New business: Bob Siemsen gave his final update from Building and Safety as he will be retiring at the end of November. Bob told the members that they should be very proud of all they do to protect the health and safety of the citizens of Lincoln and Lancaster County. He stated that he enjoyed working with them during the past 27 plus years and that they should be proud of their IAPMO Chapter. Bob will still be around as he will be working part-time for the City in the future.

Bill Schweitzer gave an update on the IAPMO conference in Kansas City and encouraged the members to be thinking about attending next year’s conference to be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Bill also reported that there will be no changes in local chapter membership for next year although he encouraged every member to also be a National member.

Next Meeting Date: The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 4, 2014, at 5:30 p.m. at the Lancaster County Extension Office. The speaker/training will be determined at a later time.

Door prize drawings were held for national members.

The meeting was then adjourned by Chairman Westlund.

After the meeting, Rob Peters from Maxitrol gave a presentation on line pressure regulators. City of Lincoln master plumbers received 1.5 hours of continuing education credit for attending the meeting and presentation.

Pizza was provided by the Chapter following the continuing education training. Special thanks to Jim Skinner and Pat Genrich for registering members at the door.

Respectfully submitted,
Rex A. Crawford
Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO Secretary
