The meeting was called to order by Chairman Pat Westlund. The first order of business was approval of the minutes from the August 5, 2014 meeting.

Secretary Rex Crawford gave the membership report. As of November 3, there were 96 members with 7 more added at the meeting giving the Chapter a total of 103 members for the year. Some members renewed for 2015 by paying their national and local dues at the same time.

Treasurer Bill Fleischman gave the treasurer’s report; the Chapter has a bank balance of approximately $5,300.

Rex Crawford gave an update on Building and Safety and a final update on membership changes for the coming year.

The final order of business was the election of officers for the next two years. Pat Genrich was elected as the next Chairman; Karl Hesseltine was elected Vice Chair; Bill Fleischman was elected Treasurer; and Rex Crawford was elected Secretary.

The next meeting date was established for February 3, 2015, and the speaker will be Callen Schwank from the Victaulic Company.

A door prize drawing was held and the meeting was adjourned.

Following the meeting, a short presentation by Chris Callihan was given on the New Nebraska Prompt Pay Act. Mark Ismert from Bulls Eye Sales then gave a presentation on his array of products from “pipe dope” to grease interceptors. Master Plumbers received two (2) hours of continuing education for attendance at the meeting.

The Chapter would like to thank Mark for sponsoring the meal at the meal at the end of the meeting of Popeyes chicken. Special thanks to all from the Chapter who stayed to help clean up after the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Rex A. Crawford
Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO Secretary
