The meeting was called to order by Chairman Karl Hesseltine at 5:30 p.m.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the agenda and the minutes of the August 8, 2017 meeting.

A membership report was given by Rex Crawford. Prior to the meeting, there were 86 paid local chapter members; 20 new renewals were added at registration giving a yearly total of 106 paid members. There were 75 attendees and guests at the meeting.

The treasurer’s report was given by Treasurer Bill Fleischman; current bank balance was approximately $5,300 prior to the meeting.

Brian Rogers updated the chapter about the conference in Anchorage, Alaska, how the code adoption process works with the new time line, and the soon-to-be 2018 UPC and UMC. Updates were given on the IWISH program and possibility of work in the United States.

Rex Crawford updated the chapter on the newly adopted 2012 UPC and fees that are now in effect and new plumbing applications that are coming out.

There was no new or old business.

The next chapter meeting is scheduled for February 6, 2018 with education to be determined later. Attendees will receive 2 hours continuing education for plumbers. A drawing for door prizes furnished by IAPMO was held, and the meeting was adjourned at 6:00 p.m.
Following the meeting, training was provided by Patrick Miller from Mack McClain and Associates on backflow preventers and installations. Attendees received 2 hours of continuing education credit for Master, Journeyman plumbers and Grade 6 water operators.

Special thanks to Matt Schmidt and Pat Genrich for helping with registration.

Respectfully submitted,

Rex Crawford

Nebraska Chapter of IAPMO Secretary
