Call to Order

• The meeting was called to order at 12:06 PM on Thursday, March 21, 2019 at Ricky's Sports Theatre & Grill 15028 Hesperian Blvd, San Leandro, CA 94578

Introductions

• The pledge of allegiance was recited and self-introductions performed with 10 people in attendance including Chairman Al Garcia, Vice Chairman Robert Gray, Treasurer Robert Johnson, and Secretary Kyle Shea.

Treasures Report

• Treasurer’s Books are in order and the chapter is adequately funded at this time.

Old Business

• No old business

New Business/Discussion

• It was suggested that the chapter set up seminars for 2018 UPC/UMC code changes.
• The Chapter is currently in 1st place for the membership with 176 points.
• Cascade, Oregon in 2nd place with 125.5 points.
• Recommendations for the 2020 officers installation dinner location
  o Possible locations: Testarossa Winery, the Hyatt in Burlingame, other wineries.
• Robert Gray discussed the Silicon Valley Clean Energy board task force. This group is tasked with developing ideas, standard options, and providing feedback for jurisdictions to create their own local energy reach code. The group expressed interest in talking with this group at a future meeting.
• 2020 WEStand Proposals:
  o Residential black water treatment
  o Onsite treatment of storm water for potable use
• UMC/UPC Report on proposals March 22nd 2019

Lunch
• Lunch was served at 12:30 PM

Presentation
• Presenter: Bob Sparks, Reliance Worldwide Corp
• Topic: PEX Piping Installation Considerations
• PEX has been in the industry for ~40 years
• SDR 9
• Three types of PEX: PEX A Peroxide method (1960), PEX B Silane method (1970s), PEX C Electron Beam method (1970s)
• Uponor offers a product which carries 25/50 plenum rating
• PEX piping is required to have a minimum 30 day UV rating per CPC 605.9
• Holdrite Test tee benefits and uses over standard test plugs.

Announcements
None

Raffle
All tickets were drawn and prizes were picked.

Adjournment
The meeting was adjourned at 1:28 by Al Garcia.

Respectfully,
Kyle Shea

Secretary
Central California Chapter IAPMO